

College of Agricultural, Consumer and Environmental Sciences

New Mexico 4-H Youth Development 4-H Contests

4-H contests are an extension of skills learned in 4-H projects. 4-H members practice what they learn in their projects, engage with peers, work as a team, utilize public speaking skills, and demonstrate decision making skills. Contests are organized in three categories.

Family and Consumer Science Contests

- Consumer Decision Making
- Family Consumer Science Bowl
- Family Consumer Science Skill-A-Thon
- Fashion Revue
- Favorite Foods

General Contests and Presentations

- Parliamentary Procedure
- Presentations - Agriculture, Family & Consumer Sciences and General
- Public Speaking - Impromptu
- Public Speaking - Prepared
- Talent Show

Agriculture and Natural Resources Contests

- Agronomy Judging
- Dairy Judging
- Entomology
- Hippology
- Horticulture
- Horse Bowl
- Horse Judging
- Land Judging
- Livestock Judging
- Livestock Skill-A-Thon
- Meat Judging
- Range Management
- Wildlife Habitat Evaluation

